What's covered under the Supplemental Travel Plan?

The RTO/ERO Supplemental Travel Plan pays for eligible expenses for medical emergencies, which occur during trips longer than 62 days and which are in excess of the amount reimbursed by your Government Health Insurance Plan. Eligible expenses and coverage amounts are the same as those specified under the Out-of-Province/Canada Travel Benefit, under the Extended Health Care Plan.

Changes in Travel Plans

If you need to change your Supplemental Travel Plan coverage after you have submitted your application to Johnson Inc. Plan Benefits Service, the following guidelines will apply:

- Extension of coverage: If you decide to travel for longer than you originally planned, you may purchase additional 15 day units of Supplemental Travel Plan coverage. However, you must do so before your original coverage expires. Simply call Johnson Inc. Plan Benefits Service with your revised return date. Your premium deduction will be adjusted accordingly and confirmation will be mailed to you.
- Cancellation of coverage: A refund of the premium, received to date, for your Supplemental Travel Plan, must be requested in writing to Johnson Inc. Plan Benefits Service before your scheduled date of departure should you decide not to travel at all or not to travel beyond the 62 days provided under the Extended Health Care Plan.

Annual Renewal of Supplemental Travel Plan Coverage: September 1st

Renewal notification will be sent to you before the beginning of the next policy year, September 1, when your coverage will automatically renew.

- Dates of Travel: You are asked to report your trip dates, i.e. departure and return dates to Johnson Inc. prior to leaving on your trip. You may advise Johnson Inc. either by telephone or by submitting the completed trip notification form, which will be sent to you with your renewal. Johnson Inc. will send you written confirmation of your trip dates and premium deductions.
